

Family Storytime @ TC [Sept. 12, 2013] ~ Let's Play Together~!~

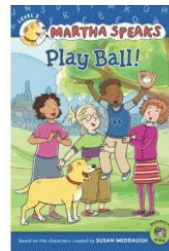

Let us all PLAY together! Playing is one of the 5 important skills for children who are developing to become well-educated and healthy. Don't forget to always engage your little children with toys, such as legos and dolls, while talking to them. What else can you play with at home, at the library, and even outside? Join in some fun by reading these wonderful and playful books! C=
