

Recommendations for Esme, Age 7

Graphic novels, and a mix of short and longer fiction, for independent reading and readalouds.

Created by BklynLisaG

Smile

Telgemeier, Raina.

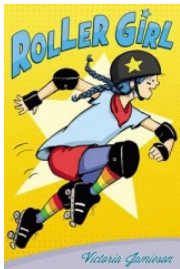

Raina wants to be a normal sixth grader, but her teeth aren't cooperating.

Phoebe and her unicorn : a Heavenly Nostrils chronicle

Simpson, Dana, 1977-

Phoebe's best friend is a unicorn incredibly aware of her awe-inspiring beauty and generally amazing unicorn'ness. Named Heavenly Nostrils, of course.

Roller girl

Jamieson, Victoria.

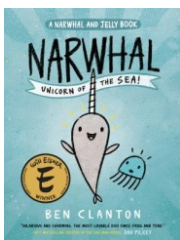

Long-ish but charming graphic novel about Astrid, who's determined to be tough enough to do roller derby.

Rapunzel's revenge

Hale, Shannon.

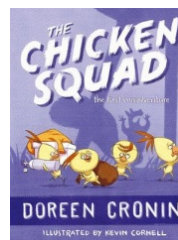

A longer graphic novel that turns Rapunzel into a Wild West hero.

Narwhal : unicorn of the sea

Clanton, Ben, 1988- author, artist.

Narwhal meets Jellyfish. A short, funny and adorable comic book.

The Chicken Squad

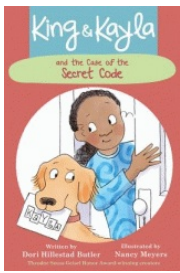

Cronin, Doreen.

These chickens solve mysteries and fight crime. Shorter chapter book, for independent reading.

Recommendations for Esme, Age 7

Graphic novels, and a mix of short and longer fiction, for independent reading and readalouds.

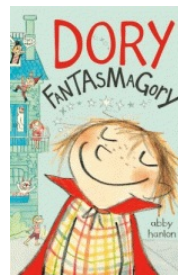

Created by BklynLisaG

King and Kayla and the case of the secret code

Butler, Dori Hillestad.

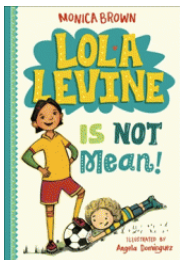

Kayla and her dog King solve mysteries. Shorter, for independent reading.

Dory Fantasmagory

Hanlon, Abby.

Ramona readalike!

Lola Levine is not mean!

Brown, Monica, 1969-

Battle of the bands

Reed, Melody, author.

Four friends decide to form a band and try a little too hard. A short chapter book, for independent reading. I loved the message of putting friendship and fun over the stress of a competition.