

BKLYN Women's History Month: Women Writers Throughout History

March is Women's History Month, and we're featuring books written by women. This list includes literature by women throughout history: fiction, poetry, and memoir; some classics and some a bit lesser-known. Also check out our list of influential feminist texts:

https://brooklyn.bibliocommons.com/list/share/605271467_bklyncorinab/866562117_womens_history_month_feminist_classics

Created by BKLYNCORINAB

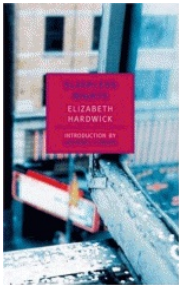

Margaret the first

Danielle Dutton.

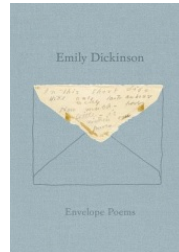

The pillow book of Sei Shonagon

translated by Arthur Waley ; with a foreword by Dennis Washburn.

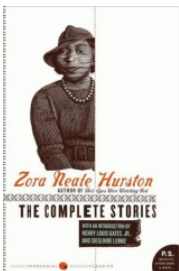

Sleepless nights

Elizabeth Hardwick ; introduction by Geoffrey O'Brien.

The envelope poems

Emily Dickinson ; with transcriptions by Marta L. Werner and Jen Bervin.

The complete stories

Zora Neale Hurston ; introduction by Henry Louis Gates, Jr. and Sieglinde Lemke.

Thus were their faces

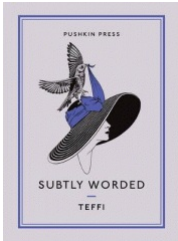

Silvina Ocampo ; translated from the Spanish by Daniel Balderston ; introduction by Helen Oyeyemi ; preface by Jorge Luis Borges.

BKLYN Women's History Month: Women Writers Throughout History

March is Women's History Month, and we're featuring books written by women. This list includes literature by women throughout history: fiction, poetry, and memoir; some classics and some a bit lesser-known. Also check out our list of influential feminist texts:

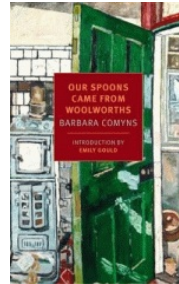

https://brooklyn.bibliocommons.com/list/share/605271467_bklyncorinab/866562117_womens_history_month_feminist_classics

Created by BKLYNCORINAB

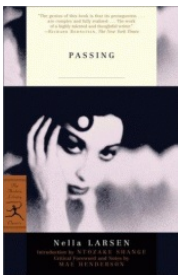

Subtly worded and other stories

Teffi ; translated from the Russian by Anne Marie Jackson with Robert and Elizabeth Chandler, Clare Kitson, Irina Steinberg and Natalia Wase.

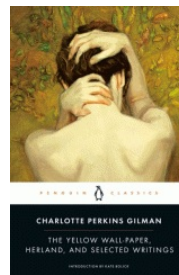

Our spoons came from Woolworths

Barbara Comyns ; introduction by Emily Gould.

Passing

Nella Larsen ; introduction by Ntozake Shange ; critical foreword and notes by Mae Henderson.

The yellow wall-paper, Herland, and selected writings

Charlotte Perkins Gilman ; edited with an introduction and notes by Denise D. Knight.