

Vancouver Book Awards: Current Nominees and Past Winners

The annual City of Vancouver Book Award has been recognizing authors of excellence of any genre since 1989. These authors contribute to the appreciation and understanding of Vancouver's history, unique character, or the achievements of its residents. The $3,000 prize is funded by the City's Publishing Reserve, which was established in 1977 as a permanent legacy for Vancouver writers and publishers. Check out these current nominees and past winners!

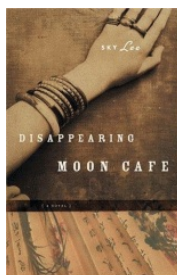

Created by BookReviewer2015

---

Saltwater City

Paul Yee.

Disappearing Moon Cafe

Sky Lee.

Qie de er nù [simplified characters]

Zheng Ailing ; Cheng Yake, Sun Chenghao yi = The concubine's children / Denise Chong. --

The jade peony

Wayson Choy.

Simple recipes

Madeleine Thien.

Dream city

Lance Berelowitz.

Vancouver Book Awards: Current Nominees and Past Winners

The annual City of Vancouver Book Award has been recognizing authors of excellence of any genre since 1989. These authors contribute to the appreciation and understanding of Vancouver's history, unique character, or the achievements of its residents. The $3,000 prize is funded by the City's Publishing Reserve, which was established in 1977 as a permanent legacy for Vancouver writers and publishers. Check out these current nominees and past winners!

Created by BookReviewer2015

---

Visions of British Columbia

edited by Bruce Grenville, Scott Steedman. --

The beggar's garden

Michael Christie. --

How poetry saved my life

Amber Dawn. --

Arthur erickson

David Stouck