

Imported from My Lists: favorite books

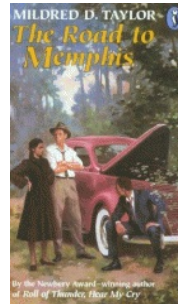

this is a list full of books that deserves a rating of 10 stars. these books i can read very well and be able to get very emotional with them espically when the character is going through a very tough time. i am able to relate to these books one way or another. these books i love very much because they transport me to a world- their world and i am allowed to feel what the character is feeling and see the world through their eyes. :)
