The solitary house

Lynn Shepherd.

London, 1850. A shadowy and feared attorney offers Charles Maddox—once an up-and-coming officer for the Metropolitan police until a charge of insubordination abruptly ended his career—a handsome price to investigate a case of threatening letters. What starts as a simple, open-and-shut case swiftly e...

Wildthorn

by Jane Eagland.

Seventeen-year-old Louisa Cosgrove has never enjoyed the life of the pampered, protected life girls of wealth were expected to follow in nineteenth century England. It was too confining. She would have much rather been like her older brother, allowed to play marbles, go to school, become a doctor. B...
