Don't let the pigeon drive the bus!

Willems, Mo, author.

When a bus driver takes a break from his route, a very unlikely volunteer springs up to take his place—a pigeon!

And Tango makes three by Justin Richardson and Peter Parnell.

At the penguin house at the Central Park Zoo, two penguins named Roy and Silo were a little bit different from the others. But their desire for a family was the same.

Mike Mulligan and his steam shovel story by Virginia Lee Burton.

Mike and his trusty steam shovel, Mary Anne, dig deep canals for boats to travel through, cut mountain passes for trains, and hollow out cellars for city skyscrapers -- the very symbol of industrial America.

The book with no pictures

B.J. Novak.

Cleverly irreverent and irresistibly silly, The Book with No Pictures is one that kids will beg to hear again and again. (And parents will be happy to oblige.)

Thank You, Omu!

Mora, Oge.

Everyone in the neighborhood dreams of a taste of Omu's delicious stew! One by one, they follow their noses toward the scrumptious scent. And one by one, Omu offers a portion of her meal. Soon the pot is empty. Has she been so generous that she has nothing left for herself?

Frankencrayon

Hall, Michael, 1954- author.

The crayons are ready to tell the thrilling tale of Frankencrayon. The costumes are made, the roles are cast, the pages are all set—but then disaster strikes.
